NEWS BY TO-DAY'S MAIL.

The U. S. frigate Congress sunk during the late war, off Newport News, was raised on the 3d inst., and about six feet of her hull was out of water.

On Thursday, the steamer Cossack, having on board the 1st Maine regiment of cavalry, put into Newport News for coal. As soon as the steamer landed the soldiers commenced helping themselves to the goods in the store of the post sutler at that place, and before the Cossack left, at noon yesterday, they had nearly cleaned out the store, carrying off goods to the amount of $7,000. The Cossack is now at anchor at Fort Monroe, and it is understood that she, with the troops, will be ordered back to Newport News to adjust the damage.

Gen. Grant has gone to Quebec. He has been warmly welcomed throughout his journey in the Eastern States.

A special Montreal dispatch says the reported abduction of George N. Sanders is pronounced an unmitigated hoax. The inevitable ex Senator Foote is there, looking seedy, and a mere relic of the former man. The vacant Premiership, in Canada, excites great interest. The Hon. John A. Macdonald will probably be the successor of Tache, and Belleau or Canhon receive the vacant Cabinet appointment. The Canadian Confederation scheme is regarded with indifference by the people.

A dispatch from Terre Haute, Indiana, says:
"A paroled prisoner, named Miller, who had induced a Mr. Gregory, the proprietor of the Spencer House, Louisville, to visit Shelburne, Sullivan county, under pretence of selling him some land, attacked Gregory in the woods, near Shelburne, and beat him nearly to death, stabbing him several times, and robbing him of ninety dollars and a watch. The people turned out and caught Miller, had him identified by Gregory, and then hung him to a tree near where the crime was committed. Faint hopes are entertained of Gregory's recovery."

Major General Terry commanding the Department of Virginia has issued an order dismissing the service, Captain E. H. Moore and Captain Thomas A. Davis, of the 16th Pennsylvania Cavalry, with loss of all pay and allowances due or to become due, for the crime of drinking with enlisted men, and inciting them to and joining with in a mutiny in Lynchburg, Va., and for being grossly drunk on duty. The General has also directed that one half ounce of Desicated Mixed Vegetables be added to the ration for issue by the Subsistence Department to adult refugees, destitute people, and adult colored persons who have no means of subsisting themselves.

Mrs. Dix, in Seaforth C. W., eloped with a young chap some time ago, but subsequently repented and returned to her husband and babies. The moral women of that town, who have no patience with repentant wrong-doers, recently got together, and ordered Mrs. Dix to leave within ten days or be ridden on a rail, with a costume of tar and feathers.

One hundred and eight captured guns were sold at auction at Fortress Monroe on Thursday. The prices obtained averaged as follows: For cast-iron guns,  $\frac{1}{2}$  cts. per pound, for wrought iron guns, 1 1-16 cts. per pound; for brass pieces, 29 cts. per pound.

An oil well at Pitt Hole, in Penn., caught fire yesterday, and three men were seriously burned.

The number of applications for widow's pensions already amounts to over one hundred thousand, and for invalid pensions to about seventy-five thousand.

General Augur has issued an order defining the limits of his Department.
